Friendly Animal Hospital FELINE VACCINES

| | Date: |
|--|---|
| | Appetite: Good - Fair - Decreased |
| c | urrent meds: |
| | Assist/Recep. Initials: |
| 1 | lease read the information for the vaccines below. Initial next to ach vaccine you want your pet to receive. |
| saliva of infected animals and can be transmitted to humans.  Recommended as an Annual (at 16 weeks) Tri-ann FVRCP $14.00 (FVR) Feline Viral Rhinotracheitis: A diseases which can be long-lasting. (C) Calcivirus: A common sometimes ocular problems. (P) Panleukopenia: Fatal viral dise immune system; it can be found everywhere and is highly resist  Recommended as a 3 booster series, then annually 8 we CHLAMYDIA $14.00 An infection that is most comminflammation in the respiratory tract and conjunctiva in the eyes  Recommended as a 3 booster series, then annually 8 we FELV $20.00 Feline Leukemia Virus (a blood disorder results in severe secondary infections. A blood test is recomment  Recommended as a 2 booster series, then annually 12 we FELV/FIV Elisa Test $59.00 Feline Leukemia Virus/ | highly contagious airborne virus responsible for respiratory and ocular and severe infection causing respiratory diseases, oral ulcer, and ase that attacks the gastrointestinal tract as well as suppresses the ant (can survive months to years in the environment) eeks 12 weeks 16 weeks Annual on in kittens and can affect all ages. The bacteria can cause s. eeks 12 weeks 16 weeks Annual er): causes compromised immune system. This immunodeficiency anded prior to vaccination. |
| unknown history of exposure or parents' health status. | ready a disease earrier, especially for stray/relai or adopted eats with |
| a physical exam with the veterinarian. STRONGID $14.00 Treats the most common parasite  Recommended as a 2 booster series for puppies, then annua DRONCIT $28.00 - $40.00 Given based upon weight transmitted by the ingestion of fleas. May require doctor's exam  Recommended at 16 weeks Annual FECAL $40.00 To monitor for internal parasites.  Recommended at Under 1 year of age Annual EXAM $28 Physical exam with a veterinarian. < | Treatment for the common parasite, tapeworms, which are n. ee will be added per invoice, per pet.>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>> |
| reaction in the past. Signs of a vaccine reaction include co respiratory distress. If your pet is experiencing a vaccine r immediately. Treatment for vaccine reaction will be at an Diphenhydramine $40 Antihistamine used as a provaccine reaction, however lessens the chance of a vaccine | eaction, please return him/her to the hospital for treatment additional expense. reventative for vaccine reaction. This does not guarantee against reaction. |
| Pet has bad previous reaction. Pet has | s never had a reaction Unknown vaccine history. |
| I declare that my pet is healthy (eating and drinking as not vomiting, diarrhea, or an increase in urination or drinking | |
| Please return in wks / years for | any boosters needed |
| Signature | Date |